Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) OR THIRTY (30) DAYS, WHICHEVER IS LONGER, FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

Status

1) Responsive to communication(s) filed on _____.
 2a) This action is FINAL. 2b) This action is non-final.
 3) Since this application is in condition for allowance except for formal matters, prosecution as to the merits is closed in accordance with the practice under Ex parte Quayle, 1935 C.D. 11, 453 O.G. 213.

Disposition of Claims

DETAILED ACTION

Priority

Receipt is acknowledged of papers submitted under 35 U.S.C. 119(a)-(d), which papers have been placed of record in the file.

Drawings

Figures 1-2 should be designated by a legend such as --Prior Art-- because only that which is old is illustrated. See MPEP § 608.02(g). Corrected drawings in compliance with 37 CFR 1.121(d) are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. The replacement sheet(s) should be labeled "Replacement Sheet" in the page header (as per 37 CFR 1.84(c)) so as not to obstruct any portion of the drawing figures. If the changes are not accepted by the examiner, the applicant will be notified and informed of any required corrective action in the next Office action. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claim 3 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention. Claim 3 is indefinite because it is unclear as to what claim is depended on.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

Claims 1-2, 4-7, and 10-12 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102() as being anticipated by Uchida (US Pat. No 6, 416,210).

Regarding claim 1, the applicant is advised that claims have been given their broadest reasonable interpretation. In re Pearson, 181 USPQ 641 (CCPA 1974), Uchida discloses a headlamp for a vehicle having a reflector (14, fig. 3), a light source (12), an output lens (18), and a focus (f2), a mask (22), the output lens having a set of arrangements (18a, 18s, best shown in fig. 7).

Regarding claim 2, Uchida further discloses that wherein the deviation directions are directions situated above the cutoff (CL1, fig. 7).

Regarding claim 4, Uchida further discloses this circumferential part is disposed on the lower part of the lens (col. 6, line 54).

Regarding claim 5, Uchida further discloses this circumferential part is substantially symmetrical with respect to a vertical plane of symmetry of the lens (fig. 7).

Regarding claim 6, Uchida further discloses this circumferential part extends over approximately 45 degrees on each side of said plane of symmetry (fig. 7).

Regarding claim 7, Uchida further discloses this circumferential part extends over the entire perimeter of the lens (fig. 3).

Regarding claim 10, Uchida further discloses this circumferential part is formed of convex ribs disposed on said tapered modified surface of the lens (18s, fig. 7).

Regarding claim 11, Uchida further discloses that said convex ribs are produced by rotation on said tapered surface of a light dispersal rib determined in order to obtain a lateral dispersal of the light at the low point of the lens (this limitation is considered as a method of producing a convex ribs).

Regarding claim 12, Uchida further discloses that a lamp device is equipped in the motor vehicle (col. 1, line 1).

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 8-9 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims. Claim 8, in part recites that the circumferential part consists of a tapered surface with a rectilinear generator inclined by an angle determined in order to obtain a deviation upwards of the optical signals coming from the focus and passing through it at the low point of the lens. This limitation was not taught or suggested by the prior art of record. Claim 9 is objected to because being depended on base claim 8.

Conclusion

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Cejnek (US Pat. No 5,307,247) discloses a headlamp device for motor vehicle including a reflector, a mask (3), and an output lens (4) having convex ribs (fig. 2).
